“ The one thing I'll remember about Jimbo is the number of times We laughed till we cried . he was a goodhearted and happy guy who just made people fell good . I will cherish the time I was able to spend in his presence. Despite all the physical challenges he had to deal with throughout his life I can't recall him ever complaining. This world has lost a good man , but I truly believe he is just the kind of guy that the Good Lord is looking for. Rest in peace buddy ! Sincerely with love , Mike Simmons

“ I only knew Jimbo because of my first husband and the senior basketball tournament in 1969, Louisville where I first met Jimbo. He was a great guy and I'm sorry that our friendship was so short. I worked many years with his brother Jon, which I came to know and love. I know, very much, what it's like to lose a brother and a father, something you never get over. I can't imagine losing a husband. I am so sorry Karen for you and your son. May God bless you and keep you. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. I pray that you can get thru this and pray Jimbo didn't suffer. Jeri Clark

“ I am filled with sadness for all of you! Jimbo was such a kind young man! I have not seen him for years, but as a boy he was a delight---a typical "little brother"! May God grant you peace, and strength!
