“ I will always remember Carole and me waiting on the curb, on Thursday evenings for Patsy to get off the bus from the city coming from work to Aunt Vi's. We loved her coming and could not wait for her to crawl in bed and sleep with us. I don't think she ever got much sleep. She was so kind and good to us girls. Will miss sending her Thinking of You cards, but will always think of her.

Love,

Linda

“ I worked for the late Joe and Pat Breig for all the years they owned Blue Ribbon Lanes. They were a wonderful couple to work for. Never a harsh word from either one of them. It was like working with family. May you and Joe R.I.P.
