“ I know since I was 17 my family moved on Thomas street, she played ball with my boys when they was toddlers and she became a good friend and neighbor over the past 21 years. I could always talk to her about anything and she never judge me like my parents did. If needed anything I could count on her she was great listener and she give me advice . She needed anything i try to help her out . She was good soul , friend, sister, aunt, grandmother, and great neighbor . Fly high Carol! Hope u are at peace . Thanks for be a good friend and neighbor.,Until we meet again
