“ Terry and Brandy we are very sorry for your loss. She is and was always kind and soft spoken towards me. Being a nurse she had to put her emotions in check and always had to be professional for the greater good of all her patients. To walk in her shoes is to know what she really felt about all her relationships with everyone who meant something to her. We never know just how we look until we look through other people's eyes. PR and Family hope faith in Our Lord is what you draw your strength from.
