

Becky Curtis

September 27, 1949 - May 10, 2014

Becky "Apple Gran" Curtis

Becky Curtis, 64, passed on at her home on May 10, 2014. Born on September 27, 1949, she was the daughter of the late Curtis Keeton, Ada Roe Scott and her stepfather, Robert Scott. She is survived by her husband, Danny Curtis of Ashland, her son, Drew Curtis of Ashland, and her daughter, Courtney Whitaker and husband Mike, of Woodstock, Georgia. She is also survived by her sister, Jeannie Damron Simmons, also of Woodstock, Georgia, and her two adoring grandchildren, Peyton "Cash" and Lorelei Whitaker, from whom she became lovingly known as Apple Gran. She also leaves behind a close-knit group of lifelong friends, who've always been there for each other.

Becky was a dental hygienist at Poindexter, Crider and Thomas, prior to beginning her 24 years as a second mother to thousands of children as the school secretary at Hager Elementary. The countless lives she touched as she offered an encouraging word, a bandage for a scrape, and her timeless smile will never forget "Mrs. Curtis."

Becky was a faithful parishioner of Holy Family Catholic Church, and was very active in her prayer group. She loved football and the perfect game-time snack. She enjoyed shopping, and her taste in decorating was immaculate.

She had a knack for the details, and took delight in planning life's great moments, big and small. From family vacations to Thanksgiving Dinners to an evening with family and friends, few could match Becky's talent as a hostess. Her passion for the perfect presentation gave expression to the beauty that filled her heart and soul. Becky truly looked for the beauty in everything, while those whose lives she touched clearly saw it in her heart, her soul, and on her table.

Becky leaves a legacy of love, of friendship, of devotion and faith. Her flair for presentation added that perfect touch to every occasion, and is never more evident than in the quiet strength, graceful beauty, and unending devotion she displayed; the presentation of a family loved unconditionally, friendships shared for a lifetime, and mostly, of a life well lived. . Funeral services will be conducted 11:00 AM Tuesday May 13, 2014 at Holy Family Catholic Church by Rev. John Noe. The family will receive friends from 9:00 AM till service time Tuesday at the church. Miller Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Holy Family Catholic Church 932 Winchester Ave. Ashland KY 41101 or Community Hospice 1480 Carter Ave. Ashland KY 41101

“ I have fond memories of being a student at Hager Elementary and our caring Mrs. Curtis (as I will always remember her.) She was a mom to many students- watched over them and fixed many a playground boo-boo. I'm so sorry for your loss and I am glad to have known her. -Ramona (Blythe) Gabbard

“ Dear Family, please accept my deepest condolences for your devastating loss. God knows your pain and the many tears that you cry. In the coming days as you reflect on the many wonderful memories that Becky left to cherish, may your hearts be moved. May God caress your aching hearts with his loving promise to reunite you together again in the future Paradise when he will bring an end to sickness, pain and even death. (Revelation 21:4, 5) You're in my prayers. (Acts 24:15)
