“ Brenda and I attended The Baptist Church on Greenup Avenue from age 4 through our teen years. We attended 1st to 12th grades. Brenda her Mother Ruth and I had many wonderful conversations on the Front porch, Living Room and Dining Room table, at the Winchester Avenue home. (You Girls probably remember) After I moved to Maryland, each year I came home we made our Annual trip to the Blurgrass Grill or the Outpost to reminisce. We were dear friends. I will miss her and cherish all the wonderful memories!
