“ *What a sad day it was when Carla left this world. Although she is celebrating with Jesus her family will miss her something terrible. I knew Carla through Dallas, as Carla was her mother in law. Dallas is my daughter and I knew how much Dallas loved Carla. We had conversations offer about her. She was a sweet, funny, caring person and she will be missed.
It was a pleasure to know you Carla. We all know you are now rejoicing with your mom and dad. 💕*

“ *Carla, was always making people laugh with her quick wit. I know I was laughing the whole we were in the same place for more that 5 minutes lol. I just can't believe she is now celebrating with Jesus.
Prayers and hugs for you Cody and Dallas*

“ My condolences to Carla's family, close friends and colleagues. Through her Facebook pictures and posts, it's evident that her legacy is the love and joy that she shared with others.

I'll never forget getting to know her when I taught her wonderful son. She was so funny and always had me laughing. She was very warm and friendly and a great mom. Although I lost touch with her when I moved to a different school, Carla left a mark on my heart from being such a caring and supportive parent. I'm very saddened to hear about her sudden passing. ❤️🙏
