“ I met Bubby 27+~ years ago by when I married his cousin Pat known in the extended family as Sis. Bubby was warm hearted and welcomed this “Connecticut Yankee” into Pat’s extended family. We golfed and fished together many times, visited each other’s homes and vacationed together. Our first trip together in North Carolina he took me aside when I started washing dishes and said I was setting a bad precedent. He loved Pat’s culinary talents. Always willing to try something different. Thank you Bubby and you also Karleen for the comfort this “yankee” always felt with you.

Many memories of our younger years. Baking brownies from the store for you and being afraid of your dog Prince. Only saw you a few times after those early years but you never changed from that great cousin!!!
