“ Debbie was the candle that lit up the room when she entered. she loved her boys w/everything in her. She loved The Lord our savior , whenever I was down and needed somewhere to lean, she always knew exactly what scripture from the bible to recite to me to make me feel better..It was only one week ago that we had our hour phone call as we did so so many times over the years, we laughed, we cried because that's what we did for each other!! All the fun times we had, all the things you taught me. I will cherish forever!!! " your lil sister" Sandee Everman Betts

“ Debbie and I use to spend a lot of great times together! We are both Grandmother's to the same 2 grandkids, Hunter and Shelby. We use to live together in Florida. We would have a blast everyday. What one didn't think of the other one did. We use to go to a place I showed her called the "rocks" there in Fla. We would drag our beach chairs drink our wine coolers and talk about how nice was to be able to just friends even through we had grandkids together! We shared so much together it is unreal what all did. I miss her so much and know she is keeping her special smile on for all to see. Love ya George! Sam... Cindy ... Nana

“ Lighting a candle in memory of a wonderful person, and a great friend. Her laughter brightened the lives of those who knew her, and her compassion helped many people. She will be greatly missed, but her memory will live on. Rest in peace, Debbie. We love you.

“ Debbie was this tall slender girl that I met when she was just 15. She became my best friend. I was a single mother. Debbie often babysit for me to give me a break. She was a dear friend and a wonderful person. I only hope she knew how much she helped me through difficult times. I shall never forget the good times we had together. R.I. P. Debbie.

“ My mother will be greatly missed and to know that she rededicated her life to the lord before she passed is probably the greatest gift I ever received. The level of happiness and faith my mother had reached was so great that I was absolutely in awe at the work that God does in our life and I know in my heart that the lord saved her from the suffering and took her home. I feel cheated because we didn't have more time together while full of the joy that God granted us, but I do find solace in the fact that we were saved from walking through the hell on earth that this sickness brings with time. All I know is that she is so happy right now as an angel of the lord who is trying to will all of us happiness and understanding so no one hurts because of her passing on to the perfection of heaven!!! I love you mom and I love all of the people who give their love and support through this!! Thank you and God bless!!

Jeremy,I am here for you and your brothers if you ever need someone. Your Momma was one of a kind. She was giving,loving and kind. I loved your Mom. I went to see her in the hospital and there she was,come on in Sally and sit down or even better you can climb up here in the bed with me,as if nothing was wrong. She had so much strength. We even took a little walk outside and we shared a lot of happy times and she even told me she was going to fight this,I have nothing to loose,I know where I am going. What a tremendous testimony of the love she had for the Lord and was such a blessing to me. I will also miss her Big smile and wonderful laughter. I am so Happy she is with our Lord and Savior. She is smiling now.Forever in my thoughts,I love you Debbie.
