“ Doris and my mother were cousins and grew up together. My mother told me numerous stories of their childhood. I took my mother to visit her family and friends in Kentucky several years ago and I saw what a bond the two of them had. Then when Doris & Greg came to visit my parents, the two of them picked up where they left off, as no time had passed by at all. They both loved reminiscing about their youth. I'm so very thankful I got to spend time with Doris getting to know her better. She was a true light in this often times dark world. I know my sweet mother was at Heaven's Gate to greet Doris, what a reunion that must have been! And those of us who have accepted Christ into our hearts by faith will get to see Doris again!!!
My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.
Much love,
Sandra Reece
