“ My prayers are with my cousins at this sad time. I have such wonderful memories of childhood of Uncle Darrell & Aunt Peg at Granny VanHorn's with Sheila, Bee, & Bubby in those long ago summer days. Sometimes I would go spend the night at their house in Ashland where we would have a ball. I would love to go back in time run through Granny's yard and up the hill again. Sit under the big trees and feel the wind blow, watching the cows graze or tying strings on Junebugs and letting them fly around buzzing. Even making rings for our finger out of lighting bugs! Oh going to the barn with Granny when she went to feed, milk the cows, gather eggs. Oh her wonderful cooking we ate. But the times we all had those summers I spent always included Uncle Darrell, Aunt and their family and I'm so happy I have those memories, I'll forever cherish them. I know he is re-United with his love of his life his beautiful Peggy together forever and Jesus in heaven. See you on the other side 🙏🙏❤️❤️🤝🤝
