“ Cathy, John and family,
I'm so sorry and sad to hear about your Mom, Cathy. She looks like the sweetest lady in her picture - such a pretty smile.
We wanted to come for her visitation tonight,
but could not.
It's so hard to lose a parent. I know you'll miss her. I also know you know that... because of Jesus, you'll get to spend an eternity with her.
You're all in our prayers.

“ Thank you for all the wonderful yearsand my best friend in Johnda, with Becky, Jennie, Cathy, Bobby, Bruce...and Red too. All these memories...beginning in your sitting room by the fireplace, in the little log cabin so many of us call Home...because of your Love...and their Love. So many of us just lost a piece of our Hearts to Heaven...may this sorrow be comforted in knowing your Eternal Life has just begun...and in the beautiful memories we will always share each time we think of you. The world will always be a much better place because you were in it...and remain so...because of the beautiful legacy you left behind. What a woman. What a life. What a Blessing! Thank you God!
