“ I am so sorry to just now find out abt Hughie’s passing. I lived in Ashland KY until my family moved to Florida in 1958. I was 13. I went to Holy Family Catholic School until we moved. Hughie didn’t live too far from my home and we often played together during summer vacations. We often went down to the basement in his home and even though we were forbidden to enter the tunnel underneath his home, we still would sneak over the barrier & venture a small ways down the tunnel. It went down to the Ohio River and the stories told were many slaves used that tunnel to get to the river, cross and be free. A lot of history about his home. Then we would get spooked & hastily get back to his basement. His parent were so very nice and Hughie had this great personality. I lost touch with him after I moved to Florida but I never forgot how nice he was and what fun we had as kids.
