“ My heart is broken. We have lost a caring and loving person. She was more than an aunt to me...She was like a second mother. Irene and my mother Barbara were the best of friends. The times I spent with them together will forever live on my heart. When mom became ill she was always there for me and she had a special way of always making me feel better. I know they're together now and watching over us. David, Paul, Rick and family my heart goes out to all of you.
