“ So many memories, such good times that are far too many to list, spanning over 20 years. Your wit, grace, and tolerance will never be forgotten. You overcame whatever life threw at you. No more illness, no more pain. It was my pleasure to have known you. I will always cherish our adventures, for they were not for the faint of heart. You are with your parents now, and I'm sure you are enjoying a chat with your old best friend. I love you, and I will always miss you.
