“ I have so many memories of John from high school. He and my brother, Danny, were good friends and a bunch of us ran around with each other. We would all go to ball games and get together to dance and listen to music. John was a huge part of my teen years and a good friend. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. Prayers for the family. “ I'm so very sorry to hear of John's passing. He and I have been friends throughout our school year and our adult life. We held each other up in the bad times with fishing trips, laughter, and motorcycle riding. Even though we lost track of each other in later years, the memories still make me smile. I'll miss you John..

“ He was my best childhood friend. We grew up together on Russell Heights for many years and had great times playing games. He was a true blessed friend. He will forever be loved in my heart.
