“ I was Pastor of Judy and Bob at Crum Chapel over thirty years ago, and was also their Pastor at Brush Creek Church. I want to say that my family and I loved them very much. They were always so kind and mindful of my children. My daughter, KARI Ann, still has a doll that thru gave her almost thirty years ago, and she still can remember their giving it to her. They were very special friends, and we will certainly have many great memories of time with them. Our prayers for your family will be made. We are so sorry for your great loss. Sam and Lucy Simmons
