“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Ken, but I heard alot of great things about him from my husband Robert Roy and from his children mostly on Facebook. Saying prayers for the family. My deepest condolences.

“ I first met Ken when I started working at Harbor Healthcare, he left there and a few years later, I came to Oakmont Manor and there he was! He cracked a joke that I was following him. Ken was just one of those people who could always make you smile and make any day better. He was always in a good mood and smiling away. I'll miss cracking jokes with him, he was such a character

“ Ken was one of the very first residents who made me feel at home when I started at Oakmont. From the beginning, he was always smiling, always joking, and just genuinely kind. He was so easy to talk to—one of those people you could sit with for a few minutes and somehow leave feeling a little lighter.

He loved hearing about my son learning to weld and would always have something to add, drawing from his years with CSX. You could tell how much pride he had in that kind of work, and he shared that so willingly.

I'll miss his smile, his gentle voice, and the way he could brighten a shift without even trying. He truly made an impact on me, and I'm grateful I got to know him.
