“ As a young man of 24, I met Chief Mutters when conducting an extensive audit of the City of Ashland, where there were many points of potential conflicts. Chief Mutters showed me the kindness and professional courtesy that can only come from the confidence one has in one's core beliefs. He was the kindest man I ever met in law enforcement. I never forgot that and tried to adopt his attitude. You were a very good man, sir.

“ What a dear, sweet, kind and wonderful gentleman Mr. Lewis Mutters was. I had the joy of being his friend and Christian sister while attending Victory Baptist Church in Lexington. He always had a smile, a thoughtful word or interesting observation to share. The Lord blessed Lewis Mutters with a long life and a beautiful family, and the Lord blessed me with the opportunity to know him and to admire and love him. May the Mutters family be comforted by the thought of Mr. Mutters rejoicing in Heaven, freed from the limitations that advancing years brought. He was one of a kind, and the world was better because he was here.
