

Margaret "Peggy" June (Winstead) Cook

April 30, 1933 - April 6, 2025

Margaret "Peggy" June (Winstead) Cook passed away at her residence in Ashland, Kentucky, on April 6, 2025. She was born to Reed and Willie (Gamble) Winstead on April 30, 1933, in Pike County, Kentucky. She was married to her loving husband Clyde Jack Cook Jr. for 54 years prior to his death in 2005. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by three children, Adrienne Patricia Cook, Clyde Jack "Buddy" Cook III and Mary Margaret Jones; siblings Reed Jr., Kenneth, Richard, Mary Elizabeth, Blanche, Gay, Ernest, Douglas, Gerald and Herbert. Peggy is survived by children Colleen Hewitt, Bonnie Cook and Rebecca Miller; grandchildren Natalie Church, Matthew (Katelyn) Jones, Jessica Hewitt, Mark (Jennifer) Navarre-Jones and Nathan (Elexis) Miller; great-grandchildren Brian Church and Alexandria Church. She is also survived by her son-in-law Dale Jones, sister Charlotte (Terry) Price, sister-in-law Loretta Winstead, sister-in-law Marie Bolling and a host of nieces and nephews who considered her a grandmother and all of whom she loved very much. Peggy was a member of the Morristown, Tennessee, Daughters of the American Revolution, Sons of Franklin County and Daughters of Franklin County. Peggy was a certified genealogist and was also a charter member of the Hawkins County, Tennessee Genealogical and Historical society. She also received a prestigious award of distinction from the East Tennessee historical society for a lifetime of contributions. She was also a historian for the Hawkins County Democratic Party and an assistant archivist for Hawkins County, Tennessee.

Peggy was a member of Persia United Methodist Church. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to St. Jude's Children's Hospital or the Shriners Children's Hospital. A private family celebration of life will be at a later date. She will be interred in a family cemetery in Virgie, Kentucky. Arrangements are under the direction of Miller Funeral Home in Ashland, Kentucky.
