“ Hello....I live in New York now but grew up in Ashland and often attended the South Ashland Methodist Church. Mrs.Boggs was one of the leaders in our youth group when I was in High School. I remember her making a big impression on my life. She had a very true faith and shared it with us. We were young....we would sometimes giggle when she would cry as she was remembering a story or telling us some detail about her life. Now as I find myself easily moved to tears these days, I find myself thinking that NOW I finally understand about Mrs. Boggs' tears. Sending you sympathy and love. We will meet again. “ *Phyllis and family, my heart aches for you all during this time. I truly understand how hard it is to go through the next few days & the days & years to come. She was such a sweet lady & when you & I were in high school, she always welcomed me in your home. She made everyone feel important.
