“ I will always remember Mary and Marie keeping my son, Billy, when he was barely a year old while I was caring for my Mom who was passing. Mary was also my Girl Scout Leader and Sunday School teacher. I will always love and remember Mary as a beautiful, loving Christian lady.

“ Mary was a precious lady who babysat Lora and showed me, as a new mom, ways to be better prepared to drop her by each week for her wonderful watch care. She will always have a special place in my heart. Prayers for peace and comfort for all those that Mary loved.
