“ I am so sorry about Mary Sue. We all loved her at the King`s Daughters and Sons Home. She was always ready to volunteer to help.. I was on the Executive Board with her and City Union. I am so sorry I will be out of town on Friday, but I will be thinking of her.

“ Remembering my first cousin, Mary Sue, and so many images come into my mind. Mary Sue in her dress for Marcella's wedding, in college looking so busy and happy, at Thanksgivings and Christmases, the time when she and Bob bought our house on Madge street and begin raising Kibbey and Elizabeth there, babysitting!!!!, life in Ashland after Madge Street, being called "Mary Sue" by Mamaw a hundred times, and how kind she was to me a few years ago when I was back in Ashland and needed a ride from the airport and a place to stay. I will miss her and knowing she was there, even though I didn't see her often. Rest in Peace, Mary Sue. Hope you can see all the family now....
