“ Mom and I had so much fun going shopping and out to eat. We would talk on the phone a dozen times a day. If the Wildcats were playing she would call me or if she heard something on the police scanner she would call and tell me what was going on. Mom would come down for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner. This year will be different during the holidays but we will rejoice that she is at peace. Love you Mom from your youngest and prettiest daughter. Rest with God and the Angel's

“ My grandma was so strong and independent. She was loving & so funny, always teasing in a playful way. She worried about her family and made sure we knew she loved us. I will miss her but I know now she is reunited in heaven with my grandpa. God blessed me with an amazing grandmother, I'm so thankful for her!

“ It still doesn't seem real that you are gone. You were always so strong & independent. I wish we could have spent more time together. I know you're with papaw now and Allyssa now has another angel taking care of her. You will always be loved and missed very much.
