

Pamela Hagley

September 9, 1960 - January 22, 2015

Pamela Hagley 54 of Ashland KY, died Thursday January 22, 2015 at Kings Daughters Medical Center. She was born September 9, 1960 in Ashland KY, the daughter of the late Paul and Loraine Ashley Rice. She was a registered nurse. She is survived by her husband James Roger Hagley, nieces and nephews; Shellie and Scott Clark, Joseph and Melanie Clark, Houston Trimble, cousins; Kim Spahr, Kayla Miller, Melinda Miller, Faith Ortiz-Kowalik, Jena Spahr, JulieAnne Resch, Tony Hamm, Sharon Fosnight and Patty Jo Hamm. The family will conduct a memorial service at a later date.

Tribute Wall

RM

“ so sorry to hear about Pam's passing i'll miss the talks we use to have when we seen each other

ruth marcum - February 04, 2015 at 07:21 PM

AN

“ So sad to hear of Pam's passing. Does not seem real that she could be gone. One of the very best people I have ever known, always ready with encouragement and support. I will miss her. Angela

Angela - January 26, 2015 at 11:47 AM

“ So saddened by the loss of my facebook shining light and former school mate. We shared many of the same likes and postings all about being positive and sharing happiness. Pam is a beautiful soul and I just believe that she wanted to rize up and shine her light for all to see. I look to the stars and see her shine as the free spirit she truly is. May happiness and love surround Pam as she lights up the sky and surrounds all those within her life with love and light.

Gaybrilla Debord - January 24, 2015 at 08:56 PM

CH

“ So deeply saddened to hear of Pam's passing. Pam was my sister-in-law, and was such a great, lovely soul. She was too good for this world.

Cindi Hagley - January 24, 2015 at 01:24 AM

TD

“ I will miss you sweet Pam. Pam was kind to the core, a true spirit of a nurse through and through. RIP my friend

Tina Dennison - January 23, 2015 at 10:08 PM

MP

“ The world grew dimmer yesterday. We have all lost a beautiful soul, even those of you who didn't know her. Pammy Dawn was my other mother. I suppose I could say that my relationship with her was as close as I'd ever experience for what a grandmother/grandchild relationship might be, although she was no older than my parents. My earliest memories include her and husband, Roger. Having them help raise and teach me enriched my world and helped to shape the person I am today. I can still hear the way she would scold me when I said or did something she didn't necessarily approve of. The way she would drawl out my name. The sweet love and the joke hidden behind it. As a child I would misbehave just to hear that. As an adult it would just make me smile.

Pammy loved like no other person I have ever known. And anyone who had the chance to know her should consider themselves lucky. My heart goes out to Roger. He and Pammy had the most perfect love, one that any couple should strive for. I cannot imagine the loss he feels.

We will celebrate Pammy's life, as I know that she would want us all to be happy, to cherish the beauty in this world, and the beauty that she brought to it.

I love you Pammy.

Megan Payton - January 23, 2015 at 07:53 PM

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Pam's passing. Pam and I went through all twelve years at Fairview High School together. Sharing our first names, we had a lot in common. In grade school we hung out pretty much with the same crowd, which could be confusing at times. I always thought Pam had such a beautiful face and complexion. She was always smart and very sweet too. As an adult Pam and I shared our love of the Lord and a desire to help others in whatever way the Lord could use us. From what I know personally and from postings I've read from Pam's family and other loved ones, she has left a beautiful testimony where her legacy will live on through others whom Pam helped along their way on life's journey. My deepest sympathies to her husband Roger, to her other family members, and to others who loved her deeply. Though I cannot be there for her Memorial Service due to distance and health, I too grieve your loss. May God comfort each of you as only He can do. Blessings always to all who loved and knew Pam (Pammy Dawn).

Pam Orgeron - January 23, 2015 at 05:44 PM

AT

“ Pam is an amazing soul, the best friend anyone could ever ask for, and the mother that so many needed. She always had wise advice that was spot on, and encouraged me in everything I did. I never had to fear telling her anything I did, because her love is unconditional in the truest sense, with no strings attached. She never judged me, only open arms and that laugh and smile. She put her pains aside and trudged forward at warp speed to make every second count, and she did in so many ways. I could go on and on about this wonderful amazing woman.... She is the sun and the moon, that butterfly or dragonfly that you'll see drifting beautifully by. I will miss you every day, and you will never leave my mind or heart. I love you.

Abby Thomas - January 23, 2015 at 05:29 PM

AT

“ Abby Thomas lit a candle in memory of Pamela Hagley

Abby Thomas - January 23, 2015 at 05:24 PM