“ Patrica was my grandmother. She passed away while I was in a facility. I just got out and am back to the normal world. The night she died everyone came into the room. Because she made them uneasy so they went to check on her. My mom missy was the last one in the room. And as she entered Patrica took her last breath. That night I was not there. But I had a dream. It went like this. She passed and was talking to me giveing me wisdom to keep going and to keep moving she told me she could never be more proud that to have me and a grandson. the next day I got told that she passed. For some reason I truly feel like she visited me that night. To say goodbye. I miss her so much. She was the best grandmother Anyone could ask for
