“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family today. I know the loss of a child is so hard to get thru, with Gods peace and love, you will make it a day at a time. Rod was such a sweet person to be around. Working in the high school at the time, I can remember some of his antics, but I always remember the smile on his face no matter what. Seems that is the way he was every time I saw him. That is what I will remember, his smile. I remember the talent show his senior year. They rocked the house. Such a fine young man, gone to soon. Prayers for the whole family. Sheila and David Caproni

“ Karen, This is from Margaret Holbrook. I hope you remember us talking several months ago in a waiting room. I had been an allergy nurse for years. (Remember the white hair) I am so, so sorry for the loss of your precious son Rodney. I don't know if you remember, but I, too, lost my son, Steven, 5 years ago. He was 34 years old. Only a parent who has lost a child can truly understand the pain and heartache you are enduring. It is like no other pain on earth. My heart aches for you, I feel your pain. I also know that nothing anyone can say will make it any easier. I do want you to know that I want you to call me any time you feel like talking, or just need to vent, or cry on a shoulder. You gave me your number that day we talked, but I have misplaced it. My number is 739-6014 and cell is 465-8910. You can call me ANYTIME. I know right now you are probably in a numb state. I even spoke at my son's funeral, I had to be numb, because now there is no way I could make it through all I said. If you ever feel like lunch, I'm available anytime. You and your family are in my prayers. I really mean it from the bottom of my heart, I want to be there for you in any way, if you need it, because I do understand every feeling you are having and will have in the future. May God wrap His arms of Love and Comfort around you and each member of your family. Sincerely, Margaret Holbrook, 5304 Lake Bonita Road, Catlettsburg, Ky. 41129
