“ Roger lived across the street when our families lived on Pine Street in Flatwoods. We rode our bikes up and down the street alot of times together.

Roger and I also graduated from Russell High School in 1968.

Roger was always a very caring person. He was so protective of his mother and sisters.

I am very sorry of your loss.

Our broken hearts will mend in time, but our memories will never fade.

“ When I think back on some of the best times in my life times that were filled with laughter and fun Roger you were there. You were there for all us crazy girls. How you ever put up with all us I'll never understand. Even though our lives went in different directions and we lost touch sometimes, when we would see each other it was always a happy reunion. You were my friend and I will miss you.

“ My memories of Roger are ones of our childhood. He was a cute and witty little boy.
As young adults most of my memories are of Christmas Eves at Grandma's house.
The last time i saw Roger was when my brother David was at Hospice in Ashland, I regret that I never told him how much it meant to me that he was there for us. We were blessed to have Roger as a member of our family.
