“ Aunt Rosie was a wonderful aunt to me. She used to get me ready for school as a child. She used to smack me on the leg, telling me to sit still while she would try and get the tangles from my hair....many times I can remember having the print from her comb on my legs. I guess I wasn't too fond of having my hair done, but she filled in the place of my mother who had long been gone. I was so thankful for her growing up. I will miss her greatly. So sorry for your loss. Love you all and miss you. Had my health been better I would have tried to come for the services.

With deepest sympathy,
