“ I am really going to miss Uncle Wendell. He was one of kindest people you could ever know, always looked forward to him and Aunt Aileen coming to visit. We would play games, talk about his inventions, or handy work so to speak, drink the occasional Pepsi, and enjoy the outdoors.

They always made my birthday when I was younger and I am very grateful for that. I always loved that he would bring his video camera wherever he went to capture all the memories. I would always look forward to our stops in Kentucky on the way to Missouri because that meant I could shoot some pool with Uncle Wendell, and he had the original Atari which had space invaders. My favorite though was the tradition of going out to spaghetti dinner. I felt like a real Italian!

I know how tough it had been for Uncle Wendell lately and hope he is resting in a better place now and knows how missed he will be. My sincerest condolences to Aunt Aileen, my mom Jeanne, and Uncle Wendells children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and close friends.
