“ I cherish the evenings at the Bowe home when the two of them, Mary Spears and I got together for our singing practice sessions. I missed them when they moved south and it saddened my heart when I heard of Bill's passing. It won't be long and we will all be together in Heaven and we can sing together again. Bill loved singing,, What you been looking for.... He did the lead. God is good in that He gives us good memories. And Bill Bowe and Janet is one very good memory of mine.

“ One of my favorite patients and families: Sandy, Pam and Janet- I will miss my favorite buddy and all the wonderful conversations we had. I will miss you guys as well. I know Mr. Bowe is singing and rejoicing and find peace knowing his pain is no pain now. I love you guys and I loved your dad. He made my day one day and said "Love you Jill." Truly a Christian man fulfilling Gods word.

“ Bill Bowe loved his family and I know you are missing him so. We pray for the wonderful memories you have to help fill the void of his passing, along with the comfort of knowing you will see him again. Our church family was as close as our natural family and I know many share the sadness of your loss and the pride in having known and loved Bill. I am grateful to be one of those. - Janie Boggs Hail
