

William Corbie Stull

November 27, 1950 - July 13, 2025

William “Corbie” Stull Jr., 75, of Russell, Kentucky, passed away peacefully on Sunday morning, July 13, 2025, at his cherished home in Russell.

Born on November 27, 1950, in Marion County, Ohio, Corbie was the beloved only son of the late Bill and Kati Stull. He leaves behind his devoted partner of 30 years, Robin K. Mustard, as well as countless cousins and friends who were more like family—too many to name, but each one deeply loved and remembered.

A visionary entrepreneur and vibrant presence in the community, Corbie owned and operated Bellefonte Academies of Beauty, as well as the iconic “CORBIE” and the Jockey Club in Ashland, Kentucky. His passion for his businesses was matched only by his love for people. Corbie built more than successful establishments—he created spaces where friendships flourished and memories were made.

He will be remembered for his generous spirit, his laughter, and the deep love he held for those around him. His legacy lives on in every life he touched.

Arrangements are under the direction and care of Miller Funeral Home in Ashland.

“ I have quite a few memories I could share here about my friend Corbie. Our lives crosses many years ago when I was young and then again several years later,as we both worked in the Beauty Industry. Everyone knows he was generous and helped out numerous local charities. This is my favorite memory that reflects that generosity. A few years ago I was helping with a local at risk young girls group home to collect dresses for them to wear for a prom. With Corbie having the local dress shop downtown I asked if he'd like to donate a dress for one of the girls, and of course he said yes. He asked me to get him sizes and he'd see what he had. Long story short , I don't remember the exact number but he showed up with new dresses for all the girls. That's the Corbie I'll always remember. RIP my sweet friend you fought hard and deserve all the blessings of heaven. Robin my Prayers are with you, and everyone else who loved him.

“ Corbie, was my cosmetology teacher he was so supportive and always told me I had a good personality and I learned so much about hair from him when I doubted myself he gave me confidence and he always thought about others that was the best part about him he had a heart of gold , everyday at Cosmo school he made the room brighter just by being there and his bubbly outgoing personality. My condolences to the family if all need anything please let me know 🙏 He always cared about his students and would push his students to success and I'm so glad he came into my life,he changed my life for the better he was a positive role model in my life and I'm super grateful for his presence in my life .

I knew Corbie for 48 years. He styled my hair all the wY back in elementary school. He would do it however he wanted and throw the mousse to it and tease it. He would say, "Now honey, I know you are going to brush this out but it's pretty. " He was like a big brother. He's back with his mom and daddy. Thoughts and prayers your way Robin. With lots of love from Leigh & Ruthie

He was my brother from another mother. He helped me raise thousands of dollar for Putnam Stadium not to mention all the clothes he donated to the Blazer Youth Services. I volunteered worked for him for over 3 years and loved every minute of it. We would take short trips together they were always filled with laughter and food. Corbie lived a full life and enjoyed every minute of every day. During his long illness. .he complained very little. He was an inspiration. I treasure his friendship and I'm so thankful he had Robin to take care of him...no one could have done it any better. ❤️

“ What a wonderful obituary and tribute for Corbie, who always left me laughing and smiling with joy, no matter where we were-the endless telephone calls and texts, eating in his restaurant and visiting he and Robin. in their home of what seemed like a 1,000 antiques. I have no doubt that he's in heaven, fixing an angel's hair or trying to open a second Corbie's! Keep soaring my great friend and confidante. Jimmy Mawyer Richmond, Kentucky
